

“My first week in the refuge was amazing. The first thing they did was show me my unit, they said this is where you will live for your time with us. I opened the door and I cried. Because before I was homeless, I had no idea where to go.” #16days #hearmetoo #orangetheworld

3:00 PM - 8 Dec 2018

Victoria is a team leader for one of our family violence refuges, working with affected families first hand. “Domestic violence is not a private problem, it is a societal problem” #16days #orangetheworld #hearmetoo

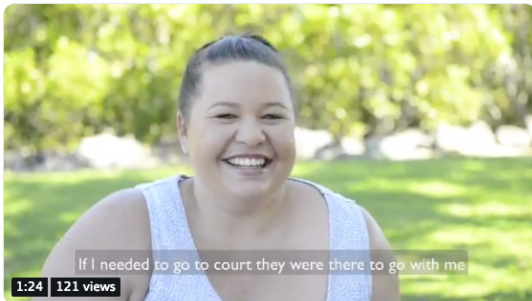

3:05 PM - 7 Dec 2018

“When I came to Save the Children’s refuge, I saw a different world. There was no stress, less thinking about everything. For my child it was really good because other children were there too. It felt like family.” #16days #hearmetoo #orangetheworld

7:00 PM - 7 Dec 2018

#HumanRightsDay marks the end of #16Days of activism for 2018, but unfortunately, family violence still continues. Kylie* shares her experience of staying in a Save the Children refuge and how it gave her the space to decide the next steps to protect herself and her family.

10:05 PM - 9 Dec 2018

One in six Australian women have experienced physical or sexual violence from a current or former partner. Violence which directly impacts children. Watch one of our Parent Support Workers, Vicki, talk about our work helping affected families. #16days #orangetheworld #HearMeToo

10:00 PM - 29 Nov 2018

It's International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women, which kicks off #16days of activism to support and empower survivors. Join the global campaign with @UN_Women to help end violence against women and children. #orangetheworld #HearMeToo

4:05 PM - 24 Nov 2018